Crowded in the Middle of Nowhere by Dr. Bo Brock

The essence of being a veterinarian in a small town, in the country. — Elaine, Lee Vining Library

I'm Afraid Your Teddy Is In Trouble Today by Jancee Dunn

The kids I read this to loved the idea of their animals having a play day when they're not around. — Ann, Benton Library

The Great Alone by Kristin Hannah

This was my first Kristen Hannah book and I absolutely fell in love with her work. — Sarah, Coleville Library

An Easy Death by Charlene Harris

A young gunslinging mercenary must use all her skills and resolve against dark forces. — Amber, Bridgeport Library

The Unlikely Pilgrimage of Harold Fry by Rachel Joyce

A friend, a long walk, a reunion — a stroll through England. — Janet, Lee Vining Library

North by Scott Jurek

Jurek's journey to set a new record on the Appalachian Trail is full of adventure and suspense.. — Anna, Mammoth Lakes Library

Let Your Mind Run by Deena Kastor

Deena invites you into her mind, from childhood to elite athlete, with heart and a good sense of humor. — Beth, Lee Vining Library

The Feral Detective by Jonathan Lethem

Lethem has created a wild, unpredictable and darkly funny story...I highly recommend it. — Abbie, Bridgeport Library

Circling the Sun by Paula McLain

This is a historical fiction book about the famous aviator, Beryl Markham. The Library also has her autobiography, West With the Night. — Lynette, Mammoth Lakes Library

Scattered by Gabor Mate

The best book I have ever read about ADHD. — Michele, Lee Vining Library

Circe by Madeline Miller

A character from Homer's Odyssey is given her own voice in this tale of longing and humanity. — Christopher, County Library Director

The Overstory by Richard Powers

Really nice writing and compelling stories of people and their (our) connection to trees and our environment. — Lori, Maker Space & Crowley Lake Library

Costly Grace by Rob Schenk

Schenk is a Jewish born evangelical minister who gets involved with extreme anti-abortion groups. A fascinating insight into "the other side". — Carole, June Lake Library

Beneath a Scarlet Sky by Mark Sullivan

18 yr old Pino finds himself drafted into the German Army in Italy—an ideal position to spy for the Resistance and Allies.— Diane, Crowley Lake

Merry Christmas, Big Hungry Bear by Don and Audrey Wood

A funny and warm story that can help teach about thinking of others and giving; sometimes giving is the best gift of all. — Kacee, Early Literacy Coordinator
