Career Vision is for:

- New adults
- The unemployed, underemployed, part and full-time job seekers
- Career changers, retirees, workforce returnees
- GED to PhDs, students, recent grads
- Veterans transitioning to civilian life
- Current and future entrepreneurs
- Those seeking to work remotely from home
- Workforce and career education professionals who work with any of the above

This workshop is full of out-of-the-box, innovative, and imaginative ideas that turn the job search process from reactive to proactive, putting you the job seeker in the driver's seat. Join us for this unique look at the world of work through the lens of CAREER VISION bringing an approach and resources tailored to the Mono County region. Jamie Beck, M.S. has been providing Career Vision workshops in libraries for 8 years. Read quotes from past participants at www.careervisionbyjamie.com
